

THE ADJOURNMENT

Of Congress To-morrow is Now Well Assured.

DEFICIENCY BILL WAS PASSED

By the Senate, which was Considered Somewhat Doubtful.

ONLY FOUR BILLS IN ISSUE.

Although Neither House Has Yet Acted on the Report, the Conference on the Naval Bill Have Agreed on a Compromise that will be Acceptable to Both--In Order to Guard Against the Failure of a Quorum in the Closing Hours of the Session the House Yesterday Revoked All Leaves of Absence, and Absentees were Telegraphed to Report Forthwith.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—Both Senator Allison, chairman of the appropriations committee of the senate, and Mr. Cannon, chairman of the appropriations committee of the house, agreed to-night that the situation indicated a final adjournment on Wednesday. The house agreed to the final conference on the postoffice appropriation bill to-day, and the senate passed the general deficiency bill as it came from the house. This leaves but four of the great supply bills still in issue—the District of Columbia, the Indian, the naval and the sundry civil bills.

Although neither house has yet acted on the report the conference on the naval bill have agreed on a report which it is thought will prove acceptable to both houses. It compromises the question of the number of battleships, by authorizing three instead of four, as the bill passed the house, and two as passed the senate. The question of the maximum cost of armor plate, fixed by the house at $25 per ton, and by the senate at $320 per ton, is postponed until the next session of Congress.

In the sundry civil bill the public building items are still the bone of contention and the District of Columbia and the Indian bills the question of sectarian charities and sectarian schools respectively are the only items of issue. The leaders of both houses expect an adjustment of these controverted questions in time for an adjournment on Wednesday.

The fact that the Republicans of the house have insisted upon taking up a contested election case in the closing hours of Congress has irritated the Democrats and they may force the majority to furnish their own quorum to unseat another Democrat. As the Republicans have not a quorum of their own in the city this furnishes the main cause for alarm so far as the house is concerned.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE REVOKED.

House Determined to Preserve a Quorum to Effect Early Adjournment.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—In order to guard against the failure of a quorum in the closing hours of the session the house to-day revoked all leaves of absence and ordered the servant-at-arms to telegraph absentees to return forthwith. The final conference report on the postoffice appropriation bill was agreed to. This left four appropriation bills still in conference. The compromise relative to the old settlers claims in the Indian bill was also agreed to, leaving only the sectarian school question in this bill open. Bills and joint resolutions were passed, calling on the secretary of the treasury for information as to the status of the settlement of the disputed question of the liability of Virginia or West Virginia for $440,000 of bonds in which the Indian funds are invested; for the establishment of a site for the erection of a penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas; for a scientific investigation of the fur seal fisheries; to amend the act for the protection of the salmon fisheries; to amend the laws relating to American seamen and to facilitate the reorganization of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. Just before the session closed, after one unsuccessful attempt, the house decided to take up the consideration of the Aldrich-Underwood contested election case from the Ninth Alabama district. Instead of adjourning the house to-night again took a recess until to-morrow in order to render the special order of Friday still operative.

Reserve Agent for People's Bank.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—The comptroller of the currency has approved the Third National Bank of Baltimore as a reserve agent for the People's National Bank, of Martinsburg.

New Postmaster Appointed.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—A. F. Rhorabough has been appointed postmaster at Belington, Barbour county, vice H. B. Rhorabough, resigned.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH

Of a Young English Woman Making a Tour Around the World.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The remains of Miss Mayne Worrell, the young English woman who died suddenly at the Palace hotel on Saturday, are still at the undertaking parlors awaiting some word or order from her family or relatives in England concerning their disposition. At present nothing is known of the young woman outside from her name and address. The mystery surrounding the young woman and the object which prompted her to make a trip around the world unattended by any friend or chaperon has not been explained by any information her acquaintances among the summer's passengers are able to furnish, and the autopsy has added more mystery to the case.

The post mortem examination upsets the theory that she died from heart disease. Dr. Whitney was called in attendance upon the young woman a few minutes before she died and found her in a state of collapse. The symptoms indicated heart trouble, and after her death Dr. Whitney expressed the view that heart trouble was the cause of her demise.

Dr. Nathan found in performing the autopsy that the heart and all conditions were in a healthy condition, and that death was not caused by any organic disease. The stomach was removed and will be submitted to a chemical examination with a view to determining whether death resulted from poisoning.

LONDON, June 8.—Chester Lodge, the home of Miss Mayne Worrell, the young English girl who died at the Palace hotel, San Francisco, yesterday,

HANNA LEAVES TO-DAY

For St. Louis—There will be No Brass Bands or Streamers.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 8.—Mr. M. A. Hanna, the manager of Major McKinley's canvass for the presidency, will start for St. Louis to-morrow afternoon in a special train over the Big Four road. He will be accompanied by a few friends, and the trip will be made as quietly as possible.

Mr. Hanna says there will be no brass bands nor streamers on his train, as he is averse to making a demonstration. Major McKinley will remain at Canton during the convention, and will receive the news over a private wire connected with Mr. Hanna's headquarters in St. Louis.

Will Sleep in Coaches.

ST. LOUIS, June 8.—Many of the delegates to the Republican convention will be quartered in their sleeping cars in the St. Louis terminal yards. The association has space for 200 sleeping cars, and they will be so placed as to afford their occupants no trouble in reaching them. Already space has been reserved for 115 cars.

Among the organizations who have secured such accommodations are the following: The Cook county Republican club of Chicago, will occupy ten cars; the Marquette club, of Chicago, will have a special train of ten cars; the Young Men's Elks club, of Cincinnati, and the Cincinnati Lincoln club will occupy 23 cars. The Republican club of Minneapolis will occupy 10 cars in the same locality, and the Tippecanoe club of Cleveland will have ten sleepers and two special cars, the Burlington road will have six special trains with the sleeping cars, which will be stored in their own yards here. They will be occupied by the Golden Gate club of California, Kansas City McKinley club, the delegation of St. Joe, Republicans, and a special party from Minneapolis.

St. Louis Chairman's Gave.

ST. LOUIS, June 8.—The gavel which will be used by the permanent chairman of the Republican national convention was received at the headquarters of the local committee to-day. It will be presented to the chairman by Senator Barry, one of the Illinois delegates. The gavel is an excellent piece of wood carving done by W. H. Bartels, of Carthage, Ill., who is reported one of the most artistic carvers in the country. Mr. Bartels selected the wood—a hickory, he taken from the log cabin occupied by President Lincoln at New Salem, Ill., in 1832. There are panels on either side which are filled in with suitably inscribed plates of gold and silver.

Advance Guard of Newspaper Men.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—The Washington correspondents special train to and from the Republican national convention pulled out of the Pennsylvania railroad station here at 3:50 o'clock this afternoon for St. Louis, where it will arrive at 7:10 o'clock to-morrow evening. The train is a handsomely equipped one, tended by Mr. Frank Thompson, first vice president, in behalf of the Pennsylvania railroad company. Aboard it were representatives of many of the leading newspapers of the United States who will form an advance guard of the army of newspaper men to arrive in St. Louis towards the latter part of the week. The train will go to St. Louis by way of Harrisburg, Pittsburgh, Columbus, Indianapolis and the Vandalia route.

The Color Question.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 8.—What shall be done with the colored delegates and alternates to the national Republican convention, is a question which is puzzling the members of the national committee, who have arrived in the city and the business men's league, which secured the convention to St. Louis, as well as every hotel and boarding house and cafe came out flatfooted to-day and declared that it would entertain no negro as a guest or customer. Money is no object. Threats of prosecution have had no effect, and from the present outlook it would seem that unless action is secured the colored men will have to go hungry and unhoused.

Allison's Room.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 8.—The boom for General Allison, of Iowa, the candidate of the coalition convention, was increased in force to-morrow. Hon. J. S. Clarkson will then arrive, as will also G. B. Pray, ex-Chairman of the Iowa state central committee, who will assume direct charge of the movement.

IN DARKNESS EIGHT HOURS.

A Violent Electrical and Thunder Storm Visits Springfield, Ills.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., June 8.—For three hours last night, this city was swept by one of the most violent electrical and thunder storms that ever occurred in this section of Illinois. Many thousands of dollars' damage resulted. In many cases the first floors of residences were flooded with several feet of water. The municipal, telegraph, fire and police electrical systems were knocked out for eight hours, and the city left in darkness most of the night. Several alarms of fire added to the terror of the situation.

The state house electrical system was demolished, telegraph and telephone switchboards were scorched and other damage done. Thousands of sparrows were killed, having been drowned or covered by the deluge. The Sangamon river has risen five feet and is still advancing. There has been great damage in the lowlands.

The Usual End of Transgressors.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—John W. Hay, assistant editor of the Journal of Commerce, was shot and killed late last night by Mrs. Nina MacDonald, who is said to be the wife of a drummer for a Chicago barbed wire company. The woman then shot herself through the heart. Hay and the woman had been living together for several days, when he announced that he was going to leave her. Then she shot him and killed herself.

Ready for Any Platform.

BUTLER, Pa., June 8.—The result of the Democratic primaries in this county on Saturday show the nomination of J. D. Marshall for Congress; P. R. Burke for state senate; G. McCallum for county clerk; and the nomination of a resolution reaffirming the principles of the last Democratic platform, and announcing that it is ready to abide by the declarations of the Chicago convention soon to assemble.

Ohio Democracy for Silver.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 8.—The Democratic primaries of Hamilton county to-night resulted in the election county to-nights silver and two gold delegates to the Democratic state convention at Columbus June 22. The returns to-night from other counties show that the delegates selected up to date to the convention stand as follows: Silver 397; gold 11; undistricted 23.

WALLING'S WOES.

Has a Hard Day of It on the Witness Stand.

SOME DAMAGING TESTIMONY

By Chief of Police Deitch Stricken Out by the Court, but that of Mayor Caldwell Allowed to Stand, which Does Not Differ Essentially from that Excluded. The Defendant Makes Many Damaging Admissions while Testifying—Admits that Jackson Told Him He Meant to Make Away with Pearl Bryan—The Colls Tightening.

NEWPORT, Ky., June 8.—To-day was motion day in the Campbell county court, and this business consumed so much of the forenoon as to leave only an hour and twenty minutes for the Walling trial. This time was consumed by arguments on the admissibility of the evidence of Ed H. Anthony and Chief of Police Phil Deitch, of Cincinnati, given last week. The defense moved to exclude the evidence of both of these witnesses; that of Anthony, because when he obtained his story from Walling he was a detective; that of Deitch because he sent for Walling and told him "it would be well" or "it might be well" to make a clean breast of it. The testimony of these witnesses was very damaging.

After hearing arguments and citations of precedent, chiefly by the defense, the court ruled this testimony out and instructed the jury to disregard it. Testimony to similar admissions by Walling on different occasions made to Mayor Caldwell and Sheriff Plummer, was held by the court as competent and admissible, and did not differ materially from that of Anthony and Deitch which was disallowed by the court. Moreover it was powerfully corroborated by Walling himself by admissions he made when under cross-examination on the witness stand this afternoon.

The whole case from 10 o'clock till 4 o'clock was a never-ending round of questions and answers. Mr. Walling, two brothers, and a sister-in-law sat near the prisoner. More than two hundred women were among the crowd of spectators outside the bar.

It was maintained that the drift of the direct examination was to show that the purpose of the defense was to throw the whole guilt of the murder on Scott Jackson, and if possible, establish an alibi for Walling himself. In his direct examination Walling said he never knew Pearl Bryan till he came here. Furthermore he said he knew Jackson at Indianapolis, but never was intimate with him till he came to the dental college at Cincinnati. Since the two came here they had roomed in the same room and slept in the same bed after the arrest, except the morning, was brought out in cross-examination.

He said in both direct and cross-examination that Scott Jackson first mentioned Pearl Bryan to him early in January, just after he had returned from the holiday vacation at Greensville, Tenn., said Walling. "Jackson took me in a corner of our room, told me he had Pearl Bryan in trouble, that he would bring her here to have an abortion, and asked me to help him. I agreed to help him by getting a physician to do the work. Jackson, a little later, said he would bring the girl here, give her some quick poison and kill her in some hotel with the impression that she had committed suicide. Still later he proposed to kill her with poison in a private room, cut her up and scatter the pieces in the city catch basin."

He said, if on Monday night, January 27, he had met Pearl Bryan at the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton depot, he would have taken her to Wallingford's saloon, in the "Tenderloin" district, where Jackson again instructed him to take her. He said he saw Pearl Bryan only three times while she was here. The first time was Tuesday, when he took a message to her from Scott Jackson. This was the only time he spoke to her. The second time was on Wednesday night, when he saw her in a corner of the room, he supposed was Pearl Bryan leaving the Wallingford saloon. The third time was Thursday night, when Jackson sent him to meet Pearl at the postoffice. He did not go in and saw Pearl Bryan without her seeing him. He went to the postoffice and took a letter and that the Thursday night before the murder did not go to his room, but stayed at Helder's hotel.

He said the reason he stayed at Helder's was that he had become suspicious of Jackson about this girl. On Friday night, January 31, at 10 o'clock, he went out with Allison (Ed) at midnight and went to bed and slept all night and saw nothing of Jackson at Helder's on Saturday evening when he first read about a murdered girl near Fort Thomas, Saturday. At noon he had taken a package at Jackson's and returned for it with a key in his pocket. He said it was a pair of pantaloons. He said they belonged to Jackson. He was required to put them on and stand before the jury. The pantaloons buttoned all right, but were a trifle short. Witness said in his examination in chief that Jackson said that he had taken the matter to him after the holidays he thought he was talking through his hat, but that now he had every reason to believe Scott Jackson murdered Pearl Bryan.

Colonel Nelson in the cross-examination, asked Walling: Do you mean to say to the jury that you slept with Jackson Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights—yes, as you believe, murdered Pearl Bryan, of whom you became suspicious on Thursday, whose numerous intentions toward Pearl Bryan you knew ever since the holidays, and in all these days when every day about the murder, that you walked with him, ate with him, slept with him and yet never once spoke to him about the murder?

"Yes, that's what I mean, except that on Wednesday night, February 5, at Sixth and Elm streets Jackson said those damned shoes were about to give the whole thing away."

The court announced that hereafter the trial would continue one hour longer each day.

"It's an Ill Wind."

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 8.—The western cyclones of the past month have caused a sudden demand for window glass and stacks at the various selling agencies in the west have been greatly reduced.

NATIONAL SAENGERFEST.

Brilliant Opening Last Night—President Cleveland Touches the Button.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 8.—The twenty-eighth national saengerfest was formally opened to-night at Music Hall, Exposition building, when President Cleveland, at Washington, pressed the button which illuminated the electrical lyre. The lyre is placed just back of the singers' gallery, and in plain view of the audience. At 8:15, when the illumination took place, the hall was filled to its capacity, fully 8,000 people being present. The lighting of the lyre was the signal for the most enthusiastic applause after which the grand symphony orchestra, under Director Heinrich Zollner, performed the Kaiser March by Wagner.

Then followed the programme as announced which was carried out to the letter.

The visitors were welcomed by Lieutenant Governor Lyons, representing the governor of the state, and by Mayors Ford and Geyer, speaking for Pittsburgh and Allegheny respectively. "Old Folks at Home" was rendered by the folk chorus and Rev. Father Ruoff delivered the festival oration.

The first number which followed, given by the associated singers of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, were heartily applauded. The first night's entertainment closed with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the festival chorus. The soloists of the evening were Grace Damann, Agnes Vogt-Roberts, H. B. Hockett and A. J. Bernstein, all solo singers. Their efforts were accorded the heartiest approval.

To-morrow two concerts will be given. At the one in the afternoon the principal feature will be the children's chorus from the public schools, composed of 3,000 voices, which will sing "America," "Our Fair Land Forever," and "Watch on the Rhine."

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—President Cleveland formally opened the National Saengerfest at Pittsburgh, Pa., at 8 o'clock to-night. By pressing an electric button in the executive mansion here he closed an electric circuit, the immediate effect of which was to illuminate in the hall in which the Saengerfest is held, an immense American flag formed of hundreds of beautifully colored incandescent lights. Besides the president there were present Mr. Thurgood, his private secretary, and Mr. J. M. McKim, secretary of the executive committee in charge of the festival. Before touching the button Mr. Cleveland sent the following telegram to the chairman of the committee on arrangements of the Saengerfest:

"I send hearty congratulations to the National Saengerfest and perform my part in its inauguration with a sincere wish for the complete success of this festival of song."

The message was read to the assembled throng in exposition hall and then when the operator at the other end made the signal "O. K." the President touched the button.

Promptly after came the following telegram addressed to the President: "EXPOSITION HALL, PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 8.

"Permit me in the name and by authority of the executive committee, of the Twenty-eighth National Saengerbund, of North American Saengerbund, to thank you most heartily for your generous words and kindly offices in opening our grand festival."

"Yours respectfully," "JOHN DILLING," President Fest Committee.

Subsequently word came that the opening was a great success and that great enthusiasm prevailed.

SPANISH COLORING.

Censorship News From Cuba All Points One Way.

HAVANA, June 8.—The insurgents in the province of Pinar del Rio have destroyed three railroad bridges. Antonio Maceo is actually at Balaesina, on the south coast of Pinar del Rio. Acosta, the insurgent leader has burned several tobacco houses and grain warehouse at Palomino, Havana province.

In Creté—Warships Bombard the Christians—Villages Sacked and Burned.

ATHENS, June 8.—The fighting in Creté occurred at Volkoles, and it is said that the Turkish warships bombarded the Christians while the engagement was taking place between the men ashore.

Other dispatches from Creté say that the Turks have forcibly entered Heraklion, have pillaged the shops, and that the village of Galatavah has been destroyed.

It is further stated that the people asked for the protection of foreign warships and that it was refused by the commanders, who said that their instructions were only to defend the subjects of the countries to which the warships belonged.

During the fighting at Volkoles, a number of villages of Creté, to the burning of which had been learned that the employees of the Smyrna railroad killed two hundred of them.

Recognized the Emir's Body.

FIRKET, June 8.—Slatin Pasha has made a tour of the battlefield and recognized the body of Emir Hamuda, of the tribe of Habbanah, who commanded the dervish forces during the engagement here yesterday, which resulted in the defeat of the enemy with heavy loss. Hamuda was shot through the head. The prisoners captured by the Egyptian forces state that the dervishes were sleeping when attacked. Many of these prisoners saluted Slatin Pasha with marked surprise. The last time they saw him he was a prisoner of the Khalifa at Omdurman, from which place he escaped last year, after having been in captivity about seventeen years.

The Result in Doubt.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 8.—The result of the Republican primaries last Saturday are still in doubt, and it will not be known positively who all the nominees are until after the conventions to-morrow. The Quinities were victorious in the First, Second, Seventh and Eighth legislative districts, from which can be ascertained that they also claim they nominate the legislative candidates in the Sixth district. In the other districts the Magellets won handily. They also won out on the county ticket, except for controller and judge, which are claimed by both factions.

French Statesman Dead.

PARIS, June 8.—Julien Simon, the distinguished French statesman, formerly premier, who has been dangerously ill for some time past, died at 11:40 this morning, aged eighty-three years.

PEQUILIAR ACTIONS

Of a South Side Minister in the Business District Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon about 6:45 o'clock a telephone message was received at police headquarters saying that a German preacher of the Eighth ward was at the Wells-Fargo express office with a revolver and was trying to commit suicide. Lieutenant Clemans answered the summons and found the man flourishing a gun. He took him to headquarters, where Captain Bennett relieved him of his weapon and talked to him for quite a while. The minister complained of being in poor circumstances and that he had to meet a note in a few days which he was unable to do, and it had worried him so that he didn't know what he was doing. The chief sent him home and cautioned him not to attempt anything of the kind again. His friends are looking after him and he will be taken care of.

WHERE IS THE MONEY?

Oberheim, the Drowned Man, Said to Have Had $500 on His Person.

Something new developed in the drowning case of Henry Oberheim last night, which created some excitement about town. It appears that the deceased had said that he had $500 in his pocket and was going to buy a Benwood saloon. He told this story to his sister-in-law, who after his death, looked for the money found on his body. A man named W. A. Hallman searched the body and turned over between two and three dollars and a gold watch to the relatives. The sister-in-law informed the police that she suspected Hallman of having kept the rest of the money. The chief found Hallman at the McFure house and took him to headquarters, where he was searched. He only had about four dollars with him and about 2 o'clock this morning, when Captain Bennett released him, satisfied that he had not taken any of the money.

BELMONT DEMOCRATS

Will Hold Their Convention at St. Clairsville This Morning.

The Democrats of Belmont county will have a hot time at St. Clairsville to-day, where they hold a county convention to select delegates to the state convention. The three men in the saddle and unless there is a big row will be sent to the state convention. Then they will quarrel about the delegates to the congressional convention and the silver Democrats are liable to pull out. Some of them have been doing so. They are all right, but they must remember that the great hue and cry they made has discouraged them.

Martin's Ferry Democrats will be well represented at the convention. It is said there will be two sets of delegates. The free silver men claim they will be in control.

The Charter Committee.

The sub-committee of the committee on city charter was to have met in regular weekly session last evening, but on account of the absence from the city of Attorney William Erskine, no meeting was held.

BERING SEA TROUBLES.

The Convention to be Proclaimed by President Cleveland and Queen Victoria.

NEW YORK, June 8.—A special to the Herald from Washington says. President Cleveland and the queen of Great Britain will officially proclaim within a few days the Bering sea convention, which the two respective governments have entered into. The senate has made public the text of the treaty. It provides for the appointment of a joint commission to ascertain the amount of the Bering sealing vessels seized in Bering sea by United States revenue cutters. The terms of the modus vivendi, or the approved decision of the Paris arbitration tribunal.

No definite selection has yet been made, so far as can be learned of the United States representative on the commission. It is thought that the United States representative will be connected with the national museum here, has about the best chance of securing the place. It is not believed Great Britain will be far behind the President in making its selection, as it is the desire of both governments to get the matter settled as soon as possible.

The long preamble of the convention recites the facts of the treaty of 1825 and the failure of the tribunal of arbitration provided for it to satisfactorily settle all matters in dispute, and specifies for additional British sealing vessels which have claims against the United States. These claims are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under the treaty of 1825 and the award and findings of the tribunal of the arbitration shall be referred to two commissioners, one appointed by Great Britain and the other by the United States. These commissioners are to meet in Victoria, British Columbia, and the president provides that all claims arising under